Exhibit 99.1

trivago N.V. Announces Restoration of Trading in its ADRs on German Stock Exchanges

DÜSSELDORF, GERMANY – June 29, 2026 - trivago N.V. (NASDAQ: TRVG) announced today that trading in its American Depositary Receipts (the "ADRs") on the Frankfurter Wertpapierbörse, Freiverkehr (Frankfurt Stock Exchange's Open Market) resumed on June 26, 2026, following the issuance of the required settlement declaration by Clearstream Europe AG ("Clearstream"), the central securities depository for Germany.

Trading in trivago ADRs on German stock exchanges had been suspended in accordance with the announcement of the Frankfurter Wertpapierbörse (Frankfurt Stock Exchange) dated November 17, 2023, regarding the suspension of price quotation in the Freiverkehr (Open Market). The suspension followed Clearstream's decision not to issue a new settlement declaration in connection with the ISIN change associated with the ratio change under the Company's ADS program.

Clearstream has now issued the previously outstanding settlement declaration. Accordingly, the conditions for the restoration of trading in trivago ADRs on German stock exchanges have been satisfied. The settlement declaration issued by Clearstream applies to all German stock exchanges on which trivago ADRs are admitted for trading. trivago ADRs continue to be traded on the Company's main listing venue, the Nasdaq Stock Market, under the symbol "TRVG."
